Leaving a Legacy for the Children

“With such Sweet Sorrow, I bid you Adieu.”

After meeting at the St Andrew Bay Yacht Club for over 25 years, it is time to say goodbye. From a meal price of $13.50 per person before the hurricane, to $25.80 a couple of years later, they have priced themselves out of reach for our club. Within the past several weeks, many members have researched places that would be suitable for our purpose and at the last meeting, the members decided to try Trigos Event Center at 131 Harrison Ave. With a negotiated price of $19 it fits within our budget this year. It’s a beautiful private room with in-house meals, but you might want to come a little early, as parking can be challenging on Harrison Ave. (There is a city lot across the street). I knew we couldn’t satisfy everyone, but this is a new beginning until something better comes around. This is a nice place that we can feel confident that a prospective member will enjoy. Besides I just polished our 97-year-old bell!

Reflect on the message that Dan quotes during the new member inductions, “we are not just a slurp and burp club” and decide if it really matters. Kiwanis is about helping children, isn’t that why you joined?

SLP Corner

Thanks to Dale Cronwell, we just chartered our newest K-Kids Club at Parker Elementary School. Teachers, administrators, and students seem very excited to be a part of the Kiwanis Family. Feel free to attend any of our Service Leadership Clubs and join the fun.

Students and Advisors from Merritt Brown and Bozeman will soon be attending the Key Club Convention to sharpen their leadership skills and get more ideas on how to serve their communities.

Pancake Days

20 Corporate Sponsors and counting!
Great job, but there are more supporters out there just waiting to buy those tickets. Just like member recruiting, all you have to do is ask. ALL MEMBERS pick up your tickets and SELL, SELL, SELL.

How do we define Kiwanis?.....“Kiwaniis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time”

March Anniversaries

22nd – Keith & Kathy Davis
 28th – Brian & Lori Hinton

Focus on Membership

Keep up the good work and welcome our newest members:

Donna Golden – sponsored by Debbie Armstrong, is retired from the Postal Service.
Mary Ellen Pettis – sponsored by Hercules Pettis (yes she's his wife), is a retired RN.
Logan Franks - sponsored by Max Daleiden, is a mortgage Loan Officer with Allegiant Lending.
Chevina Jackson – sponsored by Myron Guilford, is a victim's advocate with the Bay Co Sheriff's Office.
Mike Dickey – former member sponsored by too many to list, is an attorney with Dunlap & Shipman Firm. Thanks Jake for getting him back.

Rumor:
 Once we pick a time and date for our meetings, we can never change it.

Reality:
 As clubs grow, they are encouraged to review their traditions, including meeting times, to be sure they work for everyone. Many clubs don't meet every week, sing songs, or say the Pledge of Allegiance, yet they are strong clubs that give back to their communities.
